

RESIDENTIAL

Programme planner: Residential section

What is this programme planner for?

When completing each section of your DofE programme, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. This sheet will help you to plan your DofE programme for the Residential section. For help and support either see your DofE Leader or visit www.DofE.org/residential

What is the Residential section about?

Going on a residential gives you the chance to learn how to work with people from different backgrounds and build confidence living in new environments.

How long should I do the residential for?

The residential activity should normally take place over at least five consecutive days with a minimum of four nights spent away.

How will you research what you can do for your residential? E.g. ask Leader/family/friends, research on the internet

Where will you go on the residential? What will you do? Who will you go with?

What personal qualities do you have that you can bring to the team?

What do you want to achieve? What are your specific goals?

Who is going to help you complete your activity? E.g. Who will support you whilst you are on your residential? Who will assess you?

What evidence will you collect to show your progress?
